Reviewed in the United States on August 3, 2018. The Thalia Series is a set of four separate novels (Security Binds Her; Striking A Balance; Salvaged By Love; and Tying The Knot) which tell the story of the titular main protagonist of the series - Thalia. Though the first story in this series begins with a very difficult to read scenario, the author has created a narrative in which the characters draw you into their world in such a way that you want to see what happens to them beyond that ...

THALIA is three separate novellas involving different people and families, but all linked by the tiny Texas town of Thalia. The first novella and the last are coming of age stories, and the middle is the entire life of three intertwined people. All three stories are excellent, but the middle story (Leaving Cheyenne) is beautiful.

Thalia was written out of the series after the first season and was succeeded by a seemingly endless stream of women for whom Dobie hankered. Weld returned as a slightly wiser Thalia for two guest appearances in season 3 and 4. Zelda Gilroy (Sheila James) was a brilliant and eager young girl, hopelessly in love with Dobie, much to his annoyance.
